Rogaine – Saturday 29 November

(tramper-friendly)

Organised by New Zealand Rogaining Association

Rogaine (1) A proprietary hair restorer for discerning gents; (2) a cross-country, navigation challenge for discerning outdoorsy folk

A rogaine is a cross-country endurance and navigation event similar to orienteering but larger-scale. Teams of 2 to 5 are given a topographical map of the event area, overprinted with a network of (in this case) 30 checkpoints. The checkpoints, spaced about 1 km apart, are located on landscape features such as hilltop, distinctive tree, stream junction, or prominent rock outcrop, each marked in the field by a small flag.

Your team's challenge is to visit as many checkpoints as possible in the activity (in this case 7 hours). Each checkpoint is worth a number of points and the team that accumulates the most points is the winner. Course setters place emphasis on creating navigational and route choice challenges to make teams think – the event is as much a navigational challenge as a physical one. All teams start together, and use the same overall course, but select a route and number of check points that suits their ability and interest (even elite teams are unlikely to visit all checkpoints). Many teams are not interested in competition and regard a rogaine as a day tramp with a novel navigation element. Rogaines are great for building awareness of landscape and natural surroundings, and practicing how to read a topographical map and to navigate. Come along and try ….

Heights of Korowai 'Office Hours' Rogaine

Where: Korowai Park in the eastern high country, an hour from Christchurch.
When: Saturday 29 November 2003, 7 hours, 9am to 4pm. (Registration and course planning from 7-30am).

This rogaine builds on the tradition of 'Heights of…' rogaines. This time you'll have to endure no longer than a short day at the office, a wee pre-Christmas treat. The terrain is steep hill country with shortish climbs (never more than 350 m), and valley floors. Much of the time you'll be off-track. There is heaps of prickly scrub to negotiate so high gaiters will be handy. Otherwise it's straightforward terrain and the landscape views are great. Those looking for a more gentle day-hike with the novelty of a navigation challenge, if you ask us to do so, we will mark-off a subset of the more accessible check points that will ensure you a physically rewarding yet mentally challenging walk.

Entries must be in by Wednesday 19 November, after which you will be fully briefed on location, equipment, and safety requirements.
