The 2008 MOC Urban Rogaine

- Stirling Effort -

Sunday 27 July 2008 (6 and 3 hour options – Teams or Solo)

Event Information

There will be two options for the 3 hour event with either;

An Urban street map (scale to be confirmed) encompassing streets, walkways, parks/reserves, industrial and commercial areas.

Hazards include vehicular traffic, mobility scooters, Sunday morning cycle bunch riders, the Sunday café brunch set and their pooches.

A Topo map (scale 1:25,000) encompassing farmland, undulating with moderate-steep climbs/descents. Relatively clean with tracks (not all marked), some scrubby areas and tree plantations. Defined ridges and spurs, lots of gullies and water courses.

Hazards include erosion gullies, under-runners, dodgy fences, large soft cow pats and over protective lambing ewes.

Elevation ranging between 5 and 500 metres.

You must confirm in your entry form which map you wish to participate in.

The 6 hour event will be an out and back format with teams split in half (random draw from the hat) with one half using the urban map and the other the topo map. Time limit for each map is 3 hours. You must be back at the event centre within the time limit otherwise time penalties are incurred.

There will be a 45 minute 'pit stop' between each 3 hour lap to allow time for issuing of the second map + control descriptions and planning. These will not be issued to any teams that return under the 3 hour time limit. Scorecards will be issued at the start of the 2nd /alternate 3 hour lap.

Location
Within 15 minutes travel from Blenheim township centre to the event centre. Final details will be sent to the Team Contact closer to the event.

Maps
There will be two maps both pre-marked A4 and/or A3 size, 1:10,000-20,000 and 1:25,000 scale with 20m contours. Out of bounds areas will be overprinted. One map per competitor. Maps are not waterproof – bring a water proof bag, map case or seal adhesive.

Please respect all the landowner's property and privacy. Their support and cooperation for permitting access to their properties is very generous. We do not in any way wish to jeopardise the fantastic relationship that we have established with the landowners over the past several years.

We have a positive reputation with the landowners and the community which we wish to continue.

Access to properties is only for the duration of the event. Possession of the map does not entitle you access at any other time.

What is a Rogaine?

A Rogaine is a cross-country navigational and strategy race on foot, designed for people of all abilities. Each participant is given a map with about 40 - 50 circles marked on it showing where "checkpoints" are located. You may visit as many or as few checkpoints as you wish, in any order and by any route, within your course time limit. Visits to checkpoints are recorded on a score punch card.

Some experience with a map and compass is helpful. Much of the pleasure and challenge of a Rogaine is the strategy of planning an optimum route to suit your own or your team's ability.

Scoring points depends on the number of checkpoints visited. Each checkpoint is worth a number of points depending on distance and difficulty. There are stiff penalties for returning after the time deadline with 10-point deductions for every minute late.

Detailed rules exist, but basically:

You must travel together, within 50 metres of one another at all times. A team shall demonstrate compliance with this requirement to any official or other team on request.

All team members must visit the checkpoints and shall simultaneously approach to within 20 metres, and within sight, of each checkpoint for which points are claimed.

You must respect the landowner's property. Cross fences at posts or climb through the wire. Close any gates that are shut.

You must be responsible for your own wellbeing by having suitable food, water, clothing and equipment with you. Competitors shall not discard any litter of any form.

Plan your course well. Rogaining is as much about careful route choice and navigation as it is about physical endurance

Note: Neither the organizers nor the landowners accept liability for any accident or injury to participants during the event. The 'Team Contact' on the entry form must ensure all team members are aware that they participate at their own risk.
