

Orienteering Hutt Valley presents the 2015...

NOT... The Akatarawa Attack

The Ak Attack alternates between the full-on mountainbike expedition into the rugged Akatarawa Ranges near Wellington and a “somewhat” easier rogaine nearby.
2015 is a “nearby” year.

Its on Sunday 25 Jan (Auck Anniv Wkend)

New for 2015: you don’t need to stay with your bike, in fact some controls will only be accessible on foot. You can do it all on foot if you wish! Still the same 8 or 4hr rugged navigational challenge, with hills, 4WD track, single-track. Bush, open land. Did I say hills?
