Rules of the New Zealand Rogaining Association.

14th November 2002

1. Name

The name of the Society is the: New Zealand Rogaining Association (called "NZRA").

2. Aims

The Association is established to carry out within New Zealand the following aims:

- 2.1 To facilitate and encourage the development of the sport of rogaining, or similar human-powered navigation and endurance events, anywhere in New Zealand.
- 2.2 To establish event guidelines and give advice for events to the event organizers, regardless of any affiliation they may have with other organizations.
- 2.3 To encourage participants in the sport to contribute towards the organization and running of events.
- 2.4 To offer a Public Liability Insurance cover to any event which wishes to be affiliated to and has the approval of the NZRA.
- 2.5 To assist in the development of a suitable set of rules to apply to events which wish to be recognized as "championship" events.
- 2.6 To maintain a pool of rogaining equipment available for use to organizers of approved events.
- 2.7 To maintain a website for the dissemination of information on events and results.
- 2.8 To work with the International Rogaining Federation to advance the sport of rogaining, both within New Zealand and internationally.
- 2.9 To organize rogaines directly.
- 2.10 To do anything else that would further any of these aims.

3. Powers

The Association will have the following powers:

- 3.1 To purchase, lease, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property.
- 3.2 To sell, let, mortgage or otherwise dispose of or deal with any of the property of the Association.
- 3.3 To borrow, raise, invest or loan money in any manner and on any terms suitable to the Association.
- 3.4 To enter into any arrangement or contract with any individual, Government Department or corporate body.
- 3.5 To pay all or any of the expenses incurred in establishing and running the Association.
- 3.6 To employ or engage staff, advisors or other people and to pay their wages, salaries and/or their expenses on terms suitable to the Association.
- 3.7 To run educational, training, and social programmes.
- 3.8 To alter the powers and rules of the Association provided that no alteration or addition detracts from the charitable purposes of the Association.
- 3.9 To do anything else that in the opinion of the Association will further the charitable objects.

4. Membership

- 4.1 People will become members of the Association when they provide the information required for the Register, and pay any membership fee that has been set at a General Meeting.
- 4.2 Members agree to be bound by the Rules of the Association, and in particular agree that they participate in all activities of the Association entirely at their own risk.
- 4.3 Members must be individuals.

4.4 There is no limit on the number of Members.

5. Termination of Membership

5.1 Any member may cease to be a member by written or email request to the Secretary. There will be no refund of any membership fees paid.

5.2 Any member who has failed to pay any membership fee set by the Association three months after it is due will cease to be a member.

5.3 If any member has acted in a way that is harmful to the Association that member may be expelled by a two-thirds (2/3rds) majority of a General Meeting. The member concerned must:

(i) be given written notice of the proposed expulsion and the reasons for it; and

(ii) be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting considering the expulsion.

6. Membership Fee

6.1 From time to time the Association may set membership fees for its members. In doing so the Association will recognise the principle that its funding should come primarily from activities rather than membership.

7. Register of Members

7.1 The Association will keep an electronic register of all current members including each member's name, address, date of membership, and email address.

8. General Meetings

8.1 General Meetings of the Association will be held twice a year and one of these meetings will be the Annual General Meeting. General Meetings will:

(i) discuss general business;

(ii) review the accounts;

(iii) decide on any matters affecting the Association; and

(iv) set policy to be carried out by the office holders and Management Committee.

8.2 The General Meetings will be open to all members.

8.3 General Meetings will be convened by the President or in his/her absence by a person appointed by the General Meeting.

9. Special General Meetings

9.1 The Management Committee or ten members may request a Special General Meeting at any time by giving written notice to the Secretary stating the reasons for wanting a Special General Meeting.

9.2 The Secretary will give notice of a Special General Meeting no later than fourteen days after receiving the request. Notice shall be by email.

10. Annual General Meetings

10.1 The Annual General Meeting of the Association will be held each year not more than fifteen months after the previous Annual General Meeting.

10.2 The business of the Annual General Meeting will include:

(i) the Financial Accounts;

(ii) the election of the following office holders:

(a) President;

(b) Treasurer;

(c) Secretary;

(d) Three members to be on the Management committee;

(iii) the consideration of any other business.

11. Management Committee

11.1 A Management Committee will be elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Association. It will comprise:

(i) The President;
(ii) The Treasurer;
(iii) The Secretary; and
(iv) three other members.

11.2 The Role of the Management Committee will be:

(i) manage the affairs of the Association;
(ii) implement policy set at General Meetings; and
(iii) carry out the aims and powers of the Association.

11.3 The Management Committee will hold at least two meetings each year. The form of notice for each meeting will be determined by the Management Committee.

11.4 The quorum of the Management Committee Meetings will be four.

11.5 Members may attend all Management Meetings.

11.6 The President will convene Management Committee Meetings and in his or her absence the meeting will appoint another person.

11.7 Decisions at Management Committee Meetings will be by consensus but failing a consensus by a simple majority vote of the Management Committee members present.

11.8 The Management Committee may form sub-committees and give each subcommittee the same powers as the Management Committee.

11.9 The Management Committee may co-opt up to three people, who may or may not be members of the Association, to assist the Management Committee in its work. A co-opted person may exercise the same rights as a member. His or her co-option will cease at the next Annual General Meeting.

11.10 If any position becomes vacant on the Management Committee prior to the next Annual General Meeting the Management Committee may co-opt a member to fill the position.

12. The Running of Association Meetings

12.1 The quorum for all Association meetings will be 6 members.

12.2 All meetings will be convened by the President or in his or her absence by someone else appointed by the meeting.

12.3 Decision making at all meetings of the Association will be by consensus but failing a consensus decisions will be made by a simple majority vote of the members present. Voting will be by voices or show of hands.

13. Notice of Association Meetings

13.1 Seven days notice of all Association Meetings will be given to all members stating the time, date and place of the meeting. Email will be considered adequate notice, dated from the day of issue.

13.2 The Notice for a Special General Meeting of the Association will include the reasons for calling the meeting.

14. Control of Funds

14.1 All funds received by the Association will be paid into its bank account.

14.2 All cheques and withdrawal slips drawn on the Association's account will be signed by the Treasurer and one of two other members appointed by resolution of the Management Committee.

14.3 The income and property of the Association is to be applied solely to further the aims of the Association. No income or property is to be paid or transferred directly or indirectly to any members. This will not prevent payment of reasonable remuneration or expenses to any officer or employee of the Association or to any members for any services performed by them for the Association.

14.4 A member may charge for any services carried out by him or her where the Association would have had to pay for that service if it was carried out by somebody who was not a member.

15. Common Seal

15.1 The Common Seal of the Association will be held by the Secretary and will be used only when authorised by a resolution of the Management Committee. When the seal is used it will be signed by two members of the Management Committee.

16. Alterations and Additions to the Rules

16.1 The Association may alter, add or cancel any rules at a General meeting provided that:

(i) notice of the proposed change is included in the notice calling the meeting;

(ii) the meeting may amend the proposed change;

(iii) a two thirds majority of the members present at the meeting agree to the change;

(iv) no alterations, additions or cancellation will be made to these rules that are in conflict with:

(a) the aims of the Association; and

(b) the charitable nature of the Association.

17. Regional committees

17.1 Regional associations may be established at a General meeting, to attend to the affairs of the Association in particular geographic regions.

18. Winding Up

18.1 The Association may be wound up if:

(i) a majority of the members at a General Meeting pass a resolution to wind up the Association;

(ii) a second meeting is held not earlier than 30 days since the first meeting to confirm or reject the resolution; and

(iii) at the second meeting a two thirds (2/3rds) majority of the members confirm the resolution.

18.2 On winding up any surplus assets of the Association will be distributed to other charitable organisations in New Zealand.
