Coast to Coast
Who was First?

by Grant Hunter

Coast to Coast – Who was First? journeys through 300 years of exploration and recreation across the Main Divide of the South Island of New Zealand, from Maori greenstone trails to the internationally-renowned Coast to Coast multisport race. Grant's book celebrates several generations of back country travellers and explores the links between them. It's about discovery and self-discovery. Publication aligns with the 25th anniversary of the 'Coast to Coast', in February 2007.
