ANNAVALE ROGAINE 2012
AYRDALE ATTACK and AMBLE: Results

Thanks to you all for taking part and supporting Darfield High School's rural college. A record entry of 370 with 62 per cent of you being women.

We also thank the generous cooperation of Graeme Dawson (Ayrdale) for the use of most of his farm, Bob Kyle (Springvale) for the use of part of his farm, and Reece Clelland, manager, Annavale Ltd for parking and use of the woolshed. We also acknowledge the following businesses for prizes.

The Antarctic Centre
CRT Waterloo Road
Hanmer Springs Thermal Pools & Spa
Red Red Wine Cafe & Bar (Darfield)
Springfield Hotel
Tranz Scenic Trains (TranzAlpine)
Black Cat Cruises
Gnomes Snowsports Darfield
Porters Ski Area
Rubicon Valley Horse Treks
Terrace Downs Resort
Waimak Alpine Jet.

Thanks also to our great support crew: Steve, Abbey, Danielle, John and Michael. And Darfield HS would like to apologise for the slow soup service. In the past, they have simply plugged crockpots of soup into the shearing blade connections with no problem. But this year, when they did this, the contacts kept cutting out, forcing them to heat the soup up in small batches in the microwave.

And so to the results. A very popular control, not surprisingly, was # 90 with 118 teams (out of 138) visiting it. In contrast, # 40 was decidedly not – only 8 visits.

Hats off to Chris Forne and Matt Scott who navigated the entire course in 3 hours 53 minutes. Our aim in planning is that every team should have to decide what to leave out but we haven't had a two-times world rogaining champion (Chris) to contend with. Teamed with Matt (who was in the winning team in 2009), they set the hills alight. The only reason they didn't score the maximum of 1800 was because of an unused, but still tagged, site. Just call us honourable members of team 103, Sneaky Varmints. Yes, we should have removed the red tag but we were wet and cold when we put control 62 out and couldn't be bothered detouring. Looking at the flight plans it seems that most teams that did score control 62 came at it up the hill.

Another performance of note was a display of girl power in the 3-hour where Rebecca Batin and Sophie Batin, aged just in their mid-teens, were 2nd overall.
